NUTTING TO DEBATE IN BRIGHAM CITY

Brigham City, Aug. 11.—A debate that promises to arouse considerable interest locally will take place on the street in front of the courthouse Thursday and Friday evenings between R. M. Jeppson, county clerk, and the Rev. John D. Nutting, head of a party of camp-wagon missionaries who are holding nightly meetings in this city.

The big orchestra, 12 pieces, and Prof. Whitaker at the organ, Saturday and Sunday at the Alhambra.

MORAN BOUND OVER TO DISTRICT COURT

L. J. Moran was bound over to the district court yesterday afternoon at the close of his preliminary hearing before Acting Municipal Judge George S. Barker. He is charged with complicity in the defrauding of Frank Brown of Peoria, Ill., of $5,000, his alleged accomplices being John Doe, John Smith and Richard Roe Kelly.

Moran was represented in the case by Attorney Soren X. Christensen of Salt Lake City and George Halverson of Ogden and after the adjournment of court they announced that they would institute habeas corpus proceedings Monday, for the release of their client. These proceedings will necessitate the surrender of Moran, who is at liberty under a $5,000 bond.

The prosecution of Moran was conducted by County Attorney Joseph E. Evans and the preliminary hearing occupied three sessions of court.

"No wonder the Ogden theatre is getting the crowds when they show such plays as 'The Rosary' for 10c." Last time tonight, at the Ogden theatre.

FOREIGNERS ARE IN NO DANGER

Carranza Says Reports Are False—Guarantees Life and Property in Vera Cruz.

Galveston, Tex., Aug. 12.—"The statement that foreigners in Vera Cruz are in danger is false. The constitutional government guarantees life and property to individuals of whatever nationality."

The foregoing is the text of a cablegram signed by General Carranza and received here today by Juan T. Burns, his consular agent.

Another cablegram from Jesus Acuna, Carranza's minister of foreign relations, denies that there have been any anti-foreigner demonstrations in Vera Cruz, but admits that a sub-urbanite official made a speech the other day in which the peace conference, participated in by the United States and Latin-American countries, was sharply criticized. This speech was denounced by higher officials and was made without the sanction of Carranza.

WHY LOT'S WIFE WAS TURNED TO A PILLAR OF SALT

Pastor W. M. Adams spoke at the tent, Washington avenue and Twenty-sixth street, last night. He said in part:

"We should be careful in the small things that involve sin. The Lord says, 'He that is faithful in that which is least, will be faithful also in that which is much.'"

"We are instructed to 'Remember Lot's wife.' Lk. 17:32. When Sodom was destroyed, angels led Lot, his two daughters and wife out of the city. They were commanded not to look back. I suppose the wife of Lot thought it was such a small matter, and they were safe from the burning, and looked back. She became a pillar of salt. Though she thought it was a small matter to look back, yet it involved one of God's commands, and the God who gave the command. She lost all."

"Nadab and Abihu, sons of Aaron, offered strange fire before the Lord, and a fire went out from God, and devoured them. Lk. 10:1,2. I suppose they reasoned, a fire is a fire. What difference does it make? The common fire will burn as well as the holy. But in offering the strange fire or common fire they had disobeyed the command of Jehovah, and they were punished for their disobedience."

"Today the Christian world is agitated over the Sabbath question. The fourth commandment reads, 'The seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God,' and we are instructed not to do work on that day. It is found that the same command that tells us the seventh day is the Sabbath, says the first day is a working day. 'Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work,' and the first day is one of the six working days. Some have thought it to be such a small matter. However, we read, 'Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned my holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and the profane, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.' Ezek. 22:26."

"To hide the eyes from the Sabbath of Jehovah, is to profane the God of the Sabbath. The Sabbath involves the fourth command of God, and the God who gave the command. It is simply a matter of who we are going to obey. Says one, 'What difference does it make? a day is a day. It is a small matter at the best. But said the Lord, 'Whoever therefore shall break one of the least of the commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whosoever shall do and teach them the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.' Matt. 5:19. Then those who conclude the fourth command to be the least in the decalogue, that would be the very one the Lord would mean to them. Lot's wife thought it a small matter to turn around, and look back to the burning cities of the plains. Nadab and Abihu thought it a small matter to offer strange fire before the Lord. They all disobeyed God's command in so doing. We can not afford to take any chances of breaking one of God's words written in stone. The transgression of the law. Sin must be confessed in order that the Lord may blot it out. Unconfessed sin will prevent our prayers from being heard, and condemn us in the judgment."

NEW DISEASE KILLS CATTLE

Michigan Livestock Commission Puzzled by Mysterious Malady—Animal Stricken Blind.

Lansing, Mich., Aug. 12.—Puzzled by a mysterious disease, which is killing cattle in Saginaw county, members of the state livestock sanitary commission were confronted with another new problem today, when a report was received from Arneac county that cattle in that vicinity are being stricken blind. Inspectors have been sent to Landis to diagnose this new malady.

It is the opinion of the state livestock sanitary commission that serum sent to Saginaw county from Chicago may have contained some infectious material, and federal authorities have placed a temporary quarantine on cattle in Saginaw county.

Last time tonight, "The Rosary," at the Ogden theatre. Magnificent production.

REPUBLICS KEEP UP KEEN WATCH

Argentina Eager for Exact Information Regarding Pan-American Plan for Pacifying Mexico.

Rio Janeiro, Aug. 12.—Efforts of the Pan-American republics to settle the Mexican problem are being followed with keen interest. The national chamber approved a motion, asking the Brazilian foreign office for information, as soon as possible, regarding the state of negotiations. The newspapers continue to emphasize that no attack is contemplated upon the sovereignty of Mexico.

The semi-official Gazeta de Noticias finds fault with those, who, pledging themselves in the beginning against formal action, later came to support the leanings of the United States toward imperialism.

"In truth," it says, "America is not in sympathy with intervention in the internal affairs of Mexico. But the solution, already reached by conference at Washington, seems to be to present a conciliation candidate for the presidency of the republic. The only difficulty will be to obtain from the rival factions acceptance of a candidate, who is presented, if not forced upon them by America."

withstand any shock, an army, which, on the other hand is capable of making a strong offensive. Its morale is good, that is to say the army is prepared to remain as it is, if necessary.

"Every day our strength grows, both in England and in France. Notwithstanding the formidable resources at the disposal of Germany it is not possible that the resources of the allies will not assure them, when the time is ripe, complete victory. What we have, what England has and will have—all the resources that she can create—will assure us supremacy. I am convinced of this because I know. Every day I repeat to my friends my conviction that we shall be victorious."

JEW'S APPEAL TO AMERICANS

Association in Germany Asks United States to Quit Sending Shells to Beligerents.

RESERVISTS' STORY

German Claims French Surgeons Are Horribly Brutal to Prisoners and Refuse to Dress Wounds.

Berlin, Aug. 12, by wireless to Sayville.—The following was given out for publication today by the Overseas News Agency:

"The Association of Jews in Germany has issued a dramatic appeal to America. The appeal based on the fact that American shells are thrown by Russians into Polish towns believed to harbor Germans, says: 'Europe stands in flames. Across the ocean America lives at peace. She hears not the thunder of cannon. A fruitful rain of gold is falling on a land enjoying golden peace. Cry to America.'

"We cry out to America: 'Thousands of thy most loyal and industrious citizens come from towns being destroyed by the shells which thou art sending, instead of gifts of money, once sent back to childhood homes from Libau to Lemberg. Thou sendest iron shells to supply the army of the Czar. Thou givest iron for gold, death for life. The children are murdering their parents. America, thou hast peace. Thou art not fighting for existence. We implore thee to listen to this appeal.'

"The North German Gazette publishes an affidavit sworn to by Wilhelm Oelbenttel, a reservist, who was wounded, and later captured by the French, together with twelve other seriously wounded men.

"The affidavit states that the wounded German soldiers were treated most shamefully by the French surgeons, who refused to dress their wounds and beat and spit at them and allowed their wounds to suppurate. This treatment continued for weeks, the affidavit adds although such cruelty on the part of the French surgeons was an incitement to retaliatory methods.

"The installments paid on the second war loan have reached a total of 2,244,900,000, or 99.6 per cent of the amount subscribed."

DRAMATIC SCENES AS RUSS LEAVE

Extraordinarily Heavy Explosions as Forts at Warsaw Are Blown Up.

THE SKY FLAMES RED

Military Buildings and Railway Shops Burn—Bridges Jammed With Retiring Troops.

Lodz, Russian Poland, Aug. 12, via London, 3 p. m.—The city of Warsaw, the center of the recent colossal campaign for the Vistula line, suffered comparatively little from the battles which raged around it and from the process of its evacuation by the Russians, in leaving the city silent.

Moscow and set the town on fire, they did not do so. The water, gas and electric plants were left in working order and only in Praga the water mains were damaged in several places by explosions.

The Russians retired in such a hurry at the last moment, that they omitted to carry out many measures they had planned. A whole park of automobiles and carriages which had been collected for removal was left behind. An order to carry off the curious bells was only partly executed and many bells were left hanging.

Polish Residents Remain.

Most of the Polish residents of the city declined to follow the order to leave with the Russians, escaping deportation by keeping out of sight.

The scenes on the night of the evacuation were dramatic. At 10 o'clock in the evening a series of extraordinarily heavy explosions was heard, signaling the destruction of the forts. The sky over the city flamed red from burning military buildings and railway shops. The bridges were jammed with retreating troops or flooded with columns of artillery.

Three Bridges Destroyed.

At 5 o'clock the next morning the three Vistula bridges were destroyed. An hour later two German officers rode coolly through the city in an automobile to the town hall where they met the chief of the citizens' committee. A few minutes afterwards, patrols of cavalry appeared, their lances decorated with flowers and the men singing "Die Wacht am Rhein."

From the scenes in the streets it might have been thought the event was a city festival. Crowds in gay summer attire thronged the thoroughfares, cheering the entering soldiers, while many offered them flowers.

Fighting Outside City.

Meanwhile from the river front and even from overhead came the noise of exploding shrapnel shells and the whizz of speeding bullets. Many casualties occurred in the city and ambulances were busy the entire day transporting the wounded to their homes or to hospitals.

Municipal affairs are in the hands of a citizens' committee under the control of which a volunteer citizens' police force has been formed to preserve order. The destruction of the railway bridge was poorly executed. The middle spans were wrecked and dropped into the river, but the piers were left standing so that it will take but a comparatively short time to rebuild the structure and reopen rail communication for Prince Leopold's armies.
